

Graduate Promotions ('GP') is a dynamic promotions and marketing company which specialises in planning, arrangement and delivery of graduate recruitment campaigns on university campuses across Europe. We are the leader in our field, working with the foremost national and international graduate recruiters on award-winning campaigns. GP also conducts promotions for consumer brands.

Position: 2-month Event Management Internship

Vacancy:

GP's Event Management Internships provide an opportunity to gain experience of working on delivery and coordination of a variety of "below-the-line" marketing strategies in the context of a small but growing company.

Work in Event/Installation Management, though also based out of our London offices, will include touring the UK to run promotional events and set up marketing installations on campus. You will be expected to take responsibility for the delivery of projects, events, and installations to specific briefs and to use your initiative and know-how to ensure that the client receives maximum exposure in an appropriate way.

Vacancy Type:

2-month Internship

Area of Work: Event Management

Location: Central London based

Salary: £17,500 to £18,500 p.a.

Start Date: 24th September 2007

Finish Date: 23rd November 2007

Application Deadline: 1st June 2007

Entry Requirements: Bachelors Degree in any discipline; Full UK or EU Driving License (first issued in or prior to July 2006)

Skills Required: Excellent communication skills; attention to detail; organisational ability; teamwork; strong interpersonal skills.

Application Procedure:

CV and covering letter. Please ensure you specify in your covering letter which Vacancy Type you are applying for.

Contact Details:

Roger Coleman
Graduate Promotions Limited

Telephone: 020 7549 4800

Fax: 020 7549 4810

Email: careers@graduatepromotions.com